Ogden After Hours O-riginal Art Activity: Paper House Inspired by Jeffrey Cook

Jeffrey Cook, Makin of a Melody, 2002, Mixed media, Gift of the Artist

Jeffrey Cook was a New Orleans artist from Central City. He was known for his use of recycled and found objects in his sculptural work.

Create a house using paper and cardboard.

Supplies List:

Cardboard, Masking Tape,
Glue sticks, Cardstock,
Markers

Instructions:

Step 1: What does home mean to you? Think about what words or colors represent home to you.

Step 2: Pick out a sheet and two square pieces of the colors that you want.

Step 3: Use a glue stick to glue one square piece in the middle of the sheet. Use scissors to cut the other square into a triangle. Glue the triangle on top of the square.

Step 4: Decorate your house and two strips of cardboard with paper and words that remind you of home.

Step 5: Use masking tape to tape the cardboard pieces to outline your house.
